

Subscribe Now

Get in line with the big majority and send or come in and have your name added to the list of those who will be readers of the Daily Democrat, the first issue of which will be on Monday, February 15th. Send in your name now---RIGHT NOW.

The Daily Democrat

Will give one of the very best telegraph services ever furnished by any paper in this part of the state; will give all official proceedings of the city and county, and all news of local interest. It will be the aim of the publishers to issue such a paper as will be of interest and benefit to all the people of the community and one which they will read and enjoy.

We are making very special rates for new subscribers and for a short time only will send The Daily Democrat one full year by mail for only $2.50. Send in your name at once and start out with the very first issue. No Prizes--Your money's worth of news.

The Democrat, Great Bend, Kansas

THE LIVER REGULATES THE BODY--A SLUGGISH LIVER NEEDS CARE.

Someone has said that people with Chronic Liver Complaint should be shut up away from humanity, for they are pessimists and see through a "glass darkly." Why? Because mental states depend upon physical states. Biliousness, Headaches, Dizziness and Constipation disappear after using Dr. King's New Life Pills, 25c. at your druggist.

Sargeant Lyons returned last Saturday from Minneapolis, Kas., and for the next two weeks will be in charge of the National Guard drill here. The local company is making considerable improvements at the barracks. A table is being put in for cleaning the rifles and a new gun rack is being installed.

Mrs. E. R. Moses, Sr., Mrs. E. R. Moses, Jr., and Mrs. B. A. Gardner, gave a delightful thimble party Thursday afternoon at 2:30. All the ladies present report a delightful time.

Jacob Schomer, of north of Ellinwood, was looking after business matters and visiting with his many friends in the city Tuesday, and was among the visitors at this office that day to order The Daily Democrat sent to his address for the coming year. Mr. Schomer is well pleased with the wheat prospects and believes that we are going to have another good crop this year. Besides his land in this county, he owns a fine farm near Cunningham, on which his son, Joe, lives, and he reports that the prospects down that way are much better than here, as they had a great deal more moisture last fall and their wheat got a better start.

Rev. Father Emmerich was here from Ellinwood Tuesday to attend to business matters and for a visit with friends.

Wm. Kleisen, one of the old timers of the St. Peter and Paul neighborhood, north of Ellinwood, is reported to be slightly better this week. Mr. Kleisen, who is past 82 years of age, has been in very poor health for a long time and of late has been in a very serious condition.

Louis Damm and son, Henry, were in from west of town Tuesday on a business trip and for a visit with their many friends. They report the wheat out that way as looking fine and say the roads are getting in pretty fair condition again.

John Schneider, of Timken, spent Monday here.

Mrs. G. L. Chapman and Miss Lillian Brinkman have issued invitations to a 7 o'clock dinner Friday evening, February 12th, to meet Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnitz and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Smith, of Abilene.

In our visit to our neighboring city of Pawnee Rock, Monday, in the interest of The Daily Democrat, we met with unexpected success for our new venture. The people of the city and vicinity held out the glad hand and wished the new daily all kinds of success and did it in a substantial manner, by going down in their pockets and digging up the price for six months to a year in advance. The town shows every evidence of the past years' prosperity. The stores were enjoying a good, healthy business and the grain men had all they could do handling the wheat that was coming in.

Rev. Westwood leaves Thursday, February 15th, for St. Louis, to attend the Home Mission Council. He represents Kansas at this meeting, the whole representative body consisting of one member from each state. This high honor comes to him in recognition of the valuable work he has done for Home Missions. He is at present president of the Home Mission Society of Kansas.

Ben Giles, formerly a member of the real estate firm of Young & Giles, of this city, stopped off for a visit with friends Wednesday on his way from Larned to his home in Hutchinson.

G. W. Seward went to Oklahoma the first of the week to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law.

Bob Bidleman of the south side was in Wednesday. He was feeling good and said he didn't see any reason for anyone feeling otherwise in this country now. With fine weather, high prices and good prospects for a bumper crop next year there was nothing much to ask for.

J. J. Moran is in Wichita for a few days on business.

Lloyd Tournear is in Belpre looking after business matters this week.

George Everett was in from the west side Wednesday morning on a business trip and visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Younkin and family were in Hoisington Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank French and family. The ladies are sisters.

L. C. Breeden was on the sick list last Friday and Saturday and the first of this week, being a sufferer from a severe attack of la grippe.

SIX PER CENT MONEY!

Loans may be obtained for any purpose on acceptable Real Estate security; liberal privileges; correspondence solicited.--A. C. Agency Company, 758 Gas, Electric Building, Denver Colorado.

Don't forget the big A. W. Ackerman sale near Seward, on Monday, February 22nd. It is a complete close-out sale as Mr. Ackerman has disposed of his farm, and everything put up will be sold to the highest bidder regardless of price. There is a big list of horses and miles, some good milk cows, some hogs and a lot of farming machinery as good as new, and in addition all the buildings on the place will be sold at auction. The latter consist of a good 5-room, story and a half house, small barns, granaries and all out-buildings. Auctioneers Keenan and McCormick will cry the sale.

Mrs. Isabella Icenogle has been seriously ill for the past two weeks. She was in a very critical condition for several days, but is reported as improving slowly at the present time.

F. J. Haberman, of the north side, was attending to business matters and visiting with friends in the city Tuesday and made a pleasant call at the Democrat office.

Charles L. Bacon, of Ellinwood, writes a most encouraging letter to this office regarding The Daily Democrat, and in order to encourage the thing right, sends his check for a year's subscription in advance to the paper. Charley has been a resident of Barton county for the past forty years and during all of that time he has never failed to be one of the loyal boosters for any worthy project which has come up for consideration, and he believes that The Daily Democrat is going to be a good thing for the county and he wants to help 'er along.

A card received from L. C. Miller, for many years a resident of this city but now living in Long Beach, Calif., and asks that The Daily Democrat be sent to his address at that place. He reports that he and his family are well and getting along fine and that the weather there is right at the top notch of perfection. He asks to be remembered to all his old Great Bend friends and wants them all to enroll as Daily Democrat boosters.

Geo. Everitt and wife were in from the west side on Wednesday. George had just returned from a business trip to Colorado Springs.

A letter received from our old friend, W. B. Cornell, at LaVerne, Okla., this week compliments the Democrat and says that it is the very best newspaper ever published in Barton county and that he will appreciate the change from a weekly to a daily publication, and in order to make his compliments sincere enclosed a check for subscription. He is engaged in the live stock and land business at La Verne and says that he has just returned from a sixty-five day business through other of the southern states. He wishes to be remembered to all his old friends here and says he hopes that Barton county will raise another bumper wheat crop this year.

E. S. Isern writes from Ellinwood this week and enclosed a check for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat in advance, thus making another of the many good supporters of the new paper in that part of the county.

R. W. Ringwald is another from the Ellinwood community who this week writes to this office to have his name added to The Daily Democrat mailing list and wishes the new paper all the success in the world.

Phone in all your news items to No. 36. Co-operation is what makes a really successful community paper and we will appreciate your help in this matter. We want to make the Democrat YOUR paper and we can best accomplish this end if you will phone or send us in any item of news which you may know.

Frank Kern, the Dundee merchant, was visiting with relatives and friends and attending to business matters in the city one day the first of the week.

A letter received from Louis Hans at Topeka this week states that he is getting along nicely as sargeant-at-arms of the senate and that he likes the work very well. He says that the present session of the legislature is a most busy one and that the work is progressing satisfactorily considering the vast number of bills which have been introduced.

Mrs. Jake Damm of West Forest Avenue, who has been sick the past two months and who was in the hospital for three weeks of that time, is home again and much improved in health.

C. H. Christianson, formerly of this county but now of Colorado Springs, Colo., came down the first of the week for a visit with his children. Incidentally he ordered the Daily Democrat sent to his address in Colorado Springs.

MORTGAGES FOR SALE.

Have a party with some first mortgages on farm land which he will exchange for Great Bend property.--J. W. Soderstrom.

Mrs. Don Dodge, who underwent an operation at the hospital a week ago and who has been very poorly since, is now reported on the mend. Her friends are hopeful that she will soon be well again.

Henry Dreble, of west of town, has been hauling a great deal of his last year's crop of wheat to the Great Bend markets this week and is getting the benefit of the top price.

Miss Clara Buckland, who is teaching in the Hutchinson schools, is suffering with a severe attack of the mumps and will be forced to give up her school duties for some time. Miss Marie Swartz, another Great Bend girl who is teaching in the Hutchinson schools, has also been on the sick list with this disease and has just returned to her work after an enforced vacation of a couple of weeks.

Father Reidy was in Wichita yesterday to attend the dedication of St. Marys Convent.

Wells Thompson, of the J. I. Case Company, went to Kansas City on No. 8 Monday evening to attend to business matters there for a few days.

Ralph Chandler is here this week for a visit with home folks. He is employed on the railroad and has his headquarters at Coffeyville.

Frank Swartz, of Grant township, was a county seat visitor this week, and was attending to school district matters for Dist. No. 45. Mr. Swartz is a warm advocate of good roads, and believes that while they are in as bad shape as at the present is the time to get the rest of the people interested.

A letter recived this week from Joe H. King, at La Junta, Colo., states that he now has a blacksmith shop at that place and that he has a good business and he and his family like it there very much and he asks to be remembered to all his Great Bend friends.

Mrs. H. S. Converse, who has been very ill for some weeks, is reported to be rapidly improving and is now feeling much better than for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dessen and daughter, of Ellinwood, was spending the day in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. R. G. McDougal and daughter were here from Pawnee Rock the first of the week on a business trip and visit.

Clark Coss, was down from Heizer Monday on a business trip and for a visit with relatives and made a pleasant business and social call at this office and ordered The Daily Democrat sent to his address for the coming year. Mr. Coss has almost entirely recovered from the severe operation and sick spell which he underwent last fall, and reports that he is feeling better than for a long time. He says that there is still quite a lot of wheat in the farmers' bins in the Heizer neighborhood and that the high price does not seem to tempt them to turn loose very fast.

George Tucker was among the south side farmers who were visiting with relatives and friends and attending to business matters in the city Monday. Mr. Tucker has been a reader of the Democrat for many years and to help The Daily Democrat get a good start he ordered the paper sent for the coming year to his son, Delbert Tucker, of the south side.

A. J. Sears, one of the pioneers of the Seward neighborhood, was in the city Monday to attend to business matters and for a visit with friends and made a pleasant call at the Democrat office. Mr. Sears is not only one of the pioneer settlers of this part of the country, but is one of the pioneers of the Democrat subscription list as well, having taken the paper ever since it was published, and while here he left the cash for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat in advance.

Will Wade, of Route 6, will keep posted on the news of the county through the columns of the Democrat in the future, having handed in the cash the first of the week for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat. Mr. Wade reports that while the wheat is small out in his section of the country, yet there is a good stand and he is of the opinion that another good crop is billed for this country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thies and family this week moved from the old W. B. King property to the house just south of the Frazier place on Main street.

Will Doherty was an Ellinwood visitor Monday.

Milo Flanders was in from southeast of town Saturday on a business trip and visit and called at this office to assure us of his best wishes for the future of The Daily Democrat and to have his name added to the list of subscribers.

Ben Miller was a business visitor from southeast of town Saturday.